

I oppose any changes to the law or FCC regulations that would weaken Indiana's current "Do Not Call" law. I am covered by this law now and receive virtually no unwanted telemarketing calls. I would consider that a huge success.